

Launton C of E School Newsletter

29th June 2023 | Issue 197

So many people worked hard to make Sports Day such a successful and enjoyable occasion. Well done to all the children who competed so resiliently. Thank you to the parents for coming to watch. Thank you to everyone who was involved in the organising, setting up and clearing away, and especially thank you to Mrs Harrison, Mrs Pickering, Mrs Brandham, Dr Moore and Mr Moore.

Message from the PTA

SUMMER BBQ - 1 WEEK TO GO!

Thank you very much to everyone who pre-purchased tickets to the BBQ. Entry tickets, tokens and a limited number of food vouchers will be available to purchase on the gate.

Thank you to the class reps and everyone in the class groups for your enthusiasm in getting involved with the various stalls. Please let your class rep know if you are able to help on the day.

The Parish Council has been alerted to a problem in The Glades attributed to parents using the area to park for school drop offs. Residents have been restricted from parking on their drives, the bin lorry struggles to access all areas and some drivers are parking on the footpath by the grass area which then stops it being a footpath, with pedestrians having to walk in the road.

Please be considerate.
